

13 DAYS LUXURY WEST AFRICA CRUISE - TEMA TO DAKAR

Cruise the mangrove channels and spot saltwater hippos in one of the Atlantic's most extraordinary archipelagos. This voyage along West Africa centers on a four-day immersion in the Bijagos Archipelago. Visit Gulf of Guinea cities with busy markets, colonial-era buildings, and wild beaches, entering the UNESCO biosphere reserve of 88 islands -- famed for migratory birds, sea turtles, and Bijago culture.

ITINERARY

Day 1 - Tema (Accra)

Tema, Ghana's main commercial port and gateway to Accra, connects the capital to a coastline still visited by gannets, kingfishers, and boobies in waters relatively undisturbed by coastal development. The Accra train link, the historic streets of James Town, and the National Museum make the 30-kilometre journey to the capital one of West Africa's more rewarding port-to-city excursions.

Day 2 - Cotonou

Tucked between Nigeria and Togo, Cotonou is Benin's busy trading port and effective capital, sitting between the Atlantic coast and Lake Nokoue. Named a market town for its coastal placement and trades in palm oil and textiles, it is a colourful port alive with commerce. Although Porto-Novo is the official capital, Cotonou is the undisputed centre of the country's trading industry.

Day 3 - Lomé

Lome is the capital of Togo and a city of over 40 different tribes, making it one of the most culturally diverse cities on the West African coast. The daily market offers tribal crafts, fresh fruit, fabrics, and voodoo spirit dolls. Voodoo ceremonies, which merge African and Christian beliefs, are still widely practised across the country.

Day 4 - Takoradi

Takoradi is the gateway to Ghana's UNESCO World Heritage slave castles of Elmina and Cape Coast -- monuments to the transatlantic slave trade of haunting and essential historical significance. The city's beaches, fresh seafood market, and the commercial energy of Market Circle offer a genuine encounter with contemporary Ghana alongside one of West Africa's most important historical destinations.

Day 5 - Day at sea

Days at sea are the perfect opportunity to relax, unwind, and pursue personal interests, whether visiting the gym, the spa, or simply watching for whales from deck. These blue sea days offer an ideal balance to busy days spent exploring ashore.

Day 7 - Tokeh

Tokeh Beach, 20 miles from Freetown, is considered one of West Africa's largest and most beautiful beaches. A long crescent of undeveloped sand backed by forest and mountains, it lies on a coastline far less visited than that of its African neighbours. The beach's development by a French company in the 1960s created a small resort community that retains a genuinely unhurried character.

Day 8 - Bijagos Archipelago

Declared a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve in 1996, the Bijagos Archipelago off Guinea Bissau comprises 88 islands where ancient ritual and colourful initiation ceremonies have survived thanks to geographic isolation. Many islands are declared sacred and uninhabited, protecting West Africa's largest saltwater hippo colony in Orango National Park and over 25,000 nests of endangered sea turtles. The significant role of priestesses and matriarchal elements in society add rare cultural depth.

Day 12 - Dakar

Capital of Senegal and former colonial trading post, Dakar sits on the Cap-Vert peninsula, the most westerly point of continental Africa. The House of Slaves on UNESCO-listed Goree Island and the Theodore Monod Museum offer deep dives into Senegal's history, while Lake Retba, a vivid pink salty lake, stands among the city's striking natural sites. Sandaga Market delivers an immersive experience of color, sound, and local flavor.
