

16 DAYS LUXURY FRANCE, SPAIN & PORTUGAL CRUISE - COPENHAGEN TO LISBON

Taste the delights of the vendange, autumn's grape harvest, along the Atlantic coast, with three days on the Garonne. The extended Bordeaux stay is a flavorful affair, paired with Basque, Galician, and Portuguese food-and-wine countries, including Porto's port lodges. A two-week voyage from Copenhagen to Lisbon, arriving in the heart of the Atlantic's wine regions at harvest time.

ITINERARY

Day 1 - Copenhagen

Effortlessly cool and built to be livable, Copenhagen is a green, clean Scandinavian metropolis where cycling is the default mode of transport and the colourful warehouses of Nyhavn frame a pastoral waterfront. The Little Mermaid statue, inspired by Hans Christian Andersen's fairy tale, is the city's most quietly self-assured landmark. Danish smørrebrød and a constellation of Michelin-starred restaurants make Copenhagen one of Europe's most rewarding food cities.

Day 2 - Day at sea

Days at sea are the perfect opportunity to relax, unwind, and pursue personal interests, whether visiting the gym, the spa, or simply watching for whales from deck. These blue sea days offer an ideal balance to busy days spent exploring ashore.

Day 3 - Day at sea

Days at sea are the perfect opportunity to relax, unwind, and pursue personal interests, whether visiting the gym, the spa, or simply watching for whales from deck. These blue sea days offer an ideal balance to busy days spent exploring ashore.

Day 4 - Honfleur

At Honfleur, maritime character and relaxed sophistication meet, creating a destination that feels both scenic and pleasingly lived-in. Distinctive elements such as Normandy harbor scenery, Seine estuary views, and Honfleur's artistic legacy give the destination depth as well as beauty. Whether your day centers on swimming, shopping, architecture, or a long harborfront walk, the destination leaves an impression of effortless coastal refinement, leaving a quiet sense of discovery long after departure.

Day 5 - St Peter Port

St Peter Port is the capital of Guernsey, a Channel Island of remarkable natural beauty whose granite headlands and blue water create a Mediterranean feel. The town's 800-year-old harbour, Victor Hugo's house in exile, and the Castle Cornet overlooking the approach offer three centuries of concentrated history in a setting that regularly surprises visitors expecting something more modest.

Day 6 - Saint Malo (Brittany)

Guarding Brittany's northern coast, Saint-Malo is a granite-walled port where golden beaches, island forts, and sea air frame one of France's most storied maritime cities. Once home to sailors, explorers, and the privateers that earned it the nickname Pirate City, it still looks outward with unmistakable confidence. Walk the ramparts and old lanes to feel a destination shaped by tides, adventure, and the long pull of the Atlantic; for cruise travelers, it offers an arrival rich in atmosphere, beauty, and a strong sense of place.

Day 7 - Day at sea

Days at sea are the perfect opportunity to relax, unwind, and pursue personal interests, whether visiting the gym, the spa, or simply watching for whales from deck. These blue sea days offer an ideal balance to busy days spent exploring ashore.

Day 8 - Bordeaux

Bordeaux is a compelling French stop where the name alone conjures images of sun-ripened grapes, splashes of refined flavor, and the joy of clinking glasses. The acclaimed, sensory experience of Cite du Vin wine museum lets you put your own nose to the test, learning more about the craft involved in producing world-class vintages. Bordeaux is synonymous with quality and prestige, and the promise of endless opportunities to sample the city's famous, full-bodied red wines makes a visit to this elegant French port city one to truly savor.

Day 11 - Bilbao

Bilbao is a compelling stop where the relentless drive to all things beautiful may be a reaction to the city's industrial past, but it has led this Basque city to emerge as a new beacon of artistry. Whether it's the flow of its boundary-pushing architecture, delights of its finger food tapas, or sweeps of gorgeous shoreline nearby, Bilbao is a city that places a premium on aesthetics. Morning flea markets regularly overtake it, offering opportunities to pick through piles of coins, dusty books, and rusted antiques on the hunt for bargains, in this most elegant setting.

Day 12 - Day at sea

Days at sea are the perfect opportunity to relax, unwind, and pursue personal interests, whether visiting the gym, the spa, or simply watching for whales from deck. These blue sea days offer an ideal balance to busy days spent exploring ashore.

Day 13 - Vigo (Galicia)

On Spain's Atlantic northwest, Vigo combines the practical energy of a major fishing port with the green, sea-shaped character of Galicia. The old quarter, oyster stalls, and views across the Ria de Vigo offer a more intimate side of the city, while nearby beaches, islands, and Celtic-inflected landscapes broaden its appeal. It is a destination that may not advertise itself loudly, which only makes its authenticity more persuasive; rewarding an unhurried visit and revealing a destination that feels polished, distinctive, and genuinely memorable.

Day 14 - Oporto (Leixões)

Oporto brings together Portugal's Atlantic islands and seafaring heritage in a way that feels unmistakably its own. The atmosphere deepens around Porto wine and historic landmarks Oporto, revealing a destination with more than one register and a natural elegance that grows clearer as you explore. This is the sort of destination that turns a port call into a story, thanks to its beauty, history, and the lived character that gives every scene greater resonance, and it feels worthy of more than a passing glance.

Day 15 - Day at sea

Days at sea are the perfect opportunity to relax, unwind, and pursue personal interests, whether visiting the gym, the spa, or simply watching for whales from deck. These blue sea days offer an ideal balance to busy days spent exploring ashore.

Day 16 - Lisbon

Lisbon is one of Europe's most captivating capitals, built across seven hills above the Tagus estuary with a quality of light no other Atlantic city quite replicates. Alfama's cobbled streets, azulejo tile facades, and hilltop miradouros offer a layered, unhurried beauty, while the Tower of Belem and Jeronimos Monastery mark Portugal's Age of Discovery at the river's edge. The pasteis de nata and a glass of Ginjinha complete a portrait of a city that has been getting things quietly, confidently right for a very long time.
