

BRAHMAPUTRA DOWNSTREAM WILDLIFE AND CULTURE 8-DAY CRUISE

Embark on a luxurious river cruise aboard MV Mahabaahu, sailing through the heart of Assam. Experience sacred temples, vibrant riverine vi lages, and lush tea estates, while encountering Kaziranga's iconic wildlife on safari. Witness traditional Assamese music, dance, and craftsmanship, and immerse yourself in the rhythms of daily life along the Brahmaputra. Each day blends adventure, culture, and tranquility, leaving you with memories of a river, its people, and timeless landscapes. This downstream adventure begins in Jorhat, the erstwhile capital of the Ahom Kingdom and this journey works in reverse order to the upstream cruise. Our first stop on this route is the ancient cultural and traditional hub of Sibsagar following which we continue with the cruise route. Get ready to witness the "living cultures" of Assam in all their glory!

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrive Jorhat – Welcome onboard

Upon arrival at Jorhat Airport, you'll be warmly welcomed and transferred to Neamati Ghat to board the MV Mahabaahu. After a brief safety orientation, set sail on the majestic Brahmaputra, keeping watch for the elusive Gangetic dolphins. In the evening, gather for an insightful talk on Sibsagar and the Ahom Civilization, setting the stage for your journey through Assam's rich history, culture, and riverine beauty. Later, gather in the Lounge for warm camaraderie before indulging in a delightful semi-formal welcome dinner.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2: Ahom History and Tea Traditions

After breakfast, embark on a scenic drive to Sivasagar, exploring the historic Ahom monuments that reveal Assam's rich past. Continue to a heritage tea estate for a home-hosted Assamese lunch, meeting the planter's family and stroling through fragrant gardens. Return to MV Mahabaahu by sunset for a relaxed evening on board, soaking in the tranquil beauty of the Brahmaputra.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Majuli & Mishing Village: Culture and River Life

Begin with yoga and breakfast as the ship sails toward Majuli Island. Explore the island's Satra monasteries, enjoying cultural performances by singers and dancers, and witness Vaishnavite priests in ceremonial dance at Kamalabari Satra. Return to MV Mahabaahu for lunch and sail toward a Mishing Vilage, experiencing life on stilted homes and colorful handwoven looms. Continue to Dhansiri Mukh, where the rivers meet, with an insightful talk on Assam's geography. End the day under the stars on a deserted river island, embracing the tranquility of the Brahmaputra.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4: Eastern Kaziranga & River Life

Begin with yoga and a morning walk on a deserted island before sailing toward the Eastern Range of Kaziranga. Enjoy breakfast and a talk on the Brahmaputra and its vibrant riverine life, followed by a two-hour boat safari spotting wildlife from the water. In the evening, join the Chef's cooking demonstration, followed by a talk on Majuli, and gather around a bonfire on a deserted island for a magical night under the stars.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 5: Weaving Village & Western Kaziranga Safari

Start with yoga or a morning walk on a deserted island, followed by breakfast and a talk on Kaziranga and Indian wildlife. Visit Bishwanath Ghat, exploring the village life and local weaving traditions. After a relaxed lunch on board, drive from Silghat to the Western Range of Kaziranga National Park for an exciting jeep safari, spotting one-horned rhinos, elephants, wild buffaloes, and hundreds of bird species. End the day with a cultural dance performance on the ship.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 6: Kaziranga Wildlife Adventure & River Sail

Begin before dawn with an unforgettable elephant safari (optional) through the misty grasslands of Kaziranga National Park, where rhinos, deer, and wild elephants roam free. After a hearty breakfast at a local resort, continue your wildlife adventure on an open jeep safari, exploring more of this UNESCO World Heritage treasure. Return to MV Mahabaahu for a leisurely afternoon, then gather for an insightful talk on Kamakhya, the Occult, and Peacock Island. The day concludes with a traditional Assamese theme dinner, celebrating the flavors and culture of the region.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 7: Village Life, Peacock Island & Farewell Dinner

Start with yoga on a deserted island or the ship's deck, followed by breakfast as MV Mahabaahu sails toward a Bangla-speaking farming village. Explore the village and witness local life and traditional farming practices, then return for lunch on board. Continue sailing to Peacock Island, enjoying its scenic beauty, before heading to Pandu Port. The day concludes with a relaxed Farewell Dinner ('Alvida Bhoj') on board, celebrating memories of the Brahmaputra journey.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 8: Kamakhya Temple & Farewell Assam

Begin with early morning yoga or a nature walk before breakfast on board. Disembark at Guwahati and visit the Kamakhya Temple, a revered site of Assam, before transferring to the airport for your onward journey.
