CROATIA AND MONTENEGRO SMALL SHIP CRUISE WITH MOSTAR

An unusual cruise from Split that visits Montenegro - There are only 1-2 small ships that are allowed to do this. There is also a side trip to visit Mostar and its famous bridge. Many of the small ports and harbours of Croatia's Adriatic coast and Kotor Bay are only accessible to ships of up to 50 metres long, so we are privileged to visit these smaller ports. Kotor is a hugely dramatic bay; actually the largest fjord in southern Europe, and a spectacular inlet surrounded by granite mountains. Dubrovnik is one of the most beautiful old cities in the world, and the history just oozes from Split and Korcula. Topped off with a visit to the Blue Cave (weather permitting) - This is one of the most unusual yet all encompassing small ship cruises in the Adriatic. We will have the chance to swim in a small bay from the back of the ship on most days, and in the evenings you are usually free to explore the restaurants and cafes of the lovely towns where we spend each night.

Stop for a snack of smoked ham and cheese, brandy and wine--all local specialties. Then, head down the mountains towards the city of Budva--believed to be one of the oldest settlements on the Adriatic coast. It is more than 2,000 years old. After panoramic stop above Budva you will drive back to Kotor to explore the city that is known as the jewel of Montenegro. tour of this enchanting town surrounded by walls, which is one of the best-preserved medieval cities in the Mediterranean. Overnight in Kor ula where you can enjoy a gourmet experience at the multiple restaurants and bars.

Due to this isolation, Vis has a special charm - "the Mediterranean as it once was" making it really interesting to visit. Try some exquisite wine sorts in one of the Vis traditional wineries.
