FROM THE DALMATIAN COAST TO GREECE

Discover the Dalmatian coast drenched with sunlight, between Dubrovnik and Split, with a cultural heritage like no other. Then, farther South, in Corinth or Athens, the Greek Gods will welcome you in their antique palaces draped in marble and bedecked in their most beautiful legends. These same legends will then lead you to the heart of the Cyclades, a string of islands scattered here and there like precious gemstones.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Venice (Italy)

Arrive in Venice, make your way to the port for embarkation around 4.30 pm to 5.30 pm.

Day 2: Hvar (Croatia)

Hvar deserves the honour, for it is the sunniest and greenest of the Croatian islands. Called the 'Croatian Madeira', Hvar receives 2724 hours of sunshine each year. The stunning interior is a panorama of lavender fields, peaceful villages and pine-covered hills. Note: Excursions available at an extra charge.

Day 3: Mljet and Dubrovnik (Croatia)

Magical Mljet would be anyone's idea of an Adriatic island paradise. With 72% of the island covered by forests and the rest dotted by fields, vineyards and small villages, Mljet casts a spell that can be difficult to break. Created in 1960, Mljet National Park occupies the western third of the island and surrounds two saltwater lakes, Malo Jezero and Veliko Jezero. Dubrovnik is one of the most prominent tourist destinations in the Mediterranean. In 1979, the city of Dubrovnik joined the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites. Note: Excursions available at an extra charge.

Day 4: Kotor (Montenegro)

Kotor is a coastal town in Montenegro. It is located in a secluded part of the Gulf of Kotor. Note: Excursions available at an extra charge here.

Day 5: Fiskardo (Greece)

Fiskardo is a village and a community on the Ionian island of Kefalonia, Greece. It is part of the municipal unit of Erisos. It is the northernmost port of Kefalonia, a short distance from Ithaca. Fiskardo has a small and diminishing fishing fleet. Note: Excursions available at an extra charge.

Day 6: Crossing the Corinth Canal and Hydra (Greece)

The Corinth Canal is a canal that connects the Gulf of Corinth with the Saronic Gulf in the Aegean Sea. Hydra is one of the Saronic Islands of Greece, located in the Aegean Sea between the Saronic Gulf and the Argolic Gulf. It is separated from the Peloponnese by narrow strip of water. Note: Excursions available at an extra charge

Day 7: Delos and Mykonos (Greece)

The island of Delos, near Mykonos, near the centre of the Cyclades archipelago, is one of the most important mythological, historical and archaeological sites in Greece. Mykonos is so beautiful, it is no accident that it has become one of the most desired destinations in the world. If you add the cosmopolitan lifestyle, the sophisticated nightlife and the historic treasures of the nearby Delos to its stunning natural beauties and picturesque villages is a place never to forget. Note: Excursions available at an extra charge

Day 8: Athens (Greece)

Disembarkation after breakfast in Athens the capital & largest city in Greece.

BUILT/REFURBISHED:

A sleek silhouette, a welcoming intimate atmosphere, discover aboard this new ship the philosophy that has made our sisterships such a success: the spirit of Yacht Cruises. Sailing under the French flag, this magnificent yacht of only 122 staterooms and Suites, with balconies, will join our fleet in April 2015. You will be enchanted by the contemporary decor inspired by the our destinations and the blue light of the Vega star in the Lyra constellation. The result is a subtle variation around a palette of blues, ranging from the luminous delicate grey-blue of the Polar ice to splashes of the vivid turquoise blue found in Mediterranean coves. A refined ambiance is enhanced by the quality of the workmanship and materials: white Corian counters in the lobby contrast with the warmth of leather to recall a boat's hull, while the central sculpture of enamelled pieces takes its inspiration from the sea. In the loungebar, the carpet picks up a tennis stripe theme symbolising a certain idea of cruising, one synonymous with French elegance and a chic seaside spirit.
