Our English-speaking guide will lead a Split City tour, walking through the world-famous Diocletian's Palace. Split is the second largest urban centre in Croatia and the seat of the Split Dalmatia County.

Over 1700 years old, Split abounds with cultural and historical sights, many situated within Split's historical nucleus which is UNESCO World Heritage site.

At midday we'll sail out for Trogir, another city on the UNESCO World Heritage list. Lunch will be served on board, and we'll have a swim stop en route, arriving to Trogir in the afternoon. Trogir itself is like a museum, packed with palaces, churches, monasteries and towers. The main attraction is the Cathedral of St. Lawrence, probably the finest example of sacral architecture in Croatia. A professional English-speaking guide will take us for a Trogir city tour.

Afterwards, you'll have the evening on your own, free to explore or have a dinner in one of Trogir's cosy taverns. Overnight in Trogir Historical Town, (B,L)

Once we stop in Bol, you can enjoy some simple pleasures such as taking a walk around this lovely little Dalmatian town until lunch is served on board. After lunch we cruise to Vis. Being an important strategic military stronghold for a long time, Vis was spared the excessive tourist development and thus retained its unspoilt beaches, ecological agriculture and traditional architecture.

Enjoy an afternoon exploring Vis, its picturesque stone streets, pristine beaches and fine taverns. For all who are interested we will organize an optional Vis Island excursion, ending in Komiža, a stunning fishermen's village, to have dinner in one of the cosy restaurants. Reservations and payment on the spot. Overnight in Vis Town, (B, L)

After a swim stop and lunch on board we'll continue cruising along many coves and bays, towards Hvar, the sunniest Croatian island. Hvar is one of the country's most attractive destinations and a meeting point of international jetsetters. Upon our arrival to Hvar, a local English-speaking guide will take a guided walk through this unique town, introducing you to its millennia-long history, culture and a way of life.
