DUBROVNIK AND THE ADRIATIC CRUISE

A classic cruise from Dubrovnik on a delightful small ship. We spend a little time in beautiful Dubrovnik before we set sail to historic Korcula, the birth place of Marco Polo and an amazing old fortified port town. Pucisca is one of the prettiest villages on the Adriatic, being home to a stonemasons school. Split is an amazing city, with most of the centre being built into the remains of Diocletian's Palace, which is now a thriving hub of cafes, restaurants, apartments, museums and houses. We will also stop at Hvar, known as Croatia's jetset island, and the beautiful Mljet National Park. On most days we will cruise for 3-4 hours in the morning, stopping for a swim en-route. We arrive at our destination for the day at about lunchtime, leaving the afternoons free to explore or join a guided walk. In the evenings we are free to try the many restaurants, cafes and bars that nestle around the ports we are moored in.
