DUBROVNIK TO SPLIT IN LUXURY

Cruise on a small luxury vessel that visits many of the highlights as well as lesser known gems along Croatia's Adriatic coastline. You will spend most mornings cruising for just a few hours and stopping in secluded bays for a relaxing swim, the afternoons exploring the historic towns and cities we visit and the evenings trying some of the plethora of restaurants and cafes that abound. This coastline has been controlled by the Ancient Greeks, Romans, Illyrians, Venice, Hungary, Serbia, Yugoslavia and finally Croatia, and the Ottomans and Italians have also had major influences. Marco Polo was born in Korcula and Roman Emperor Diocletian built a vast palace which still dominates Central Split today. Small ships None but the smallest cruise ships are allowed into many of the small harbours and ports that litter the Croatian coastline and islands. Many big ships visit Dubrovnik and Split but nothing in between, simply because they can't. They miss out on some of the highlights of this beautiful and historic region such as Hvar, Bol, Korcula and Vis. Our vessels, that carry a maximum of 40 people, can access all the small ports as well as the bays where we stop to swim on most days, and with just 40 people our guests are easily absorbed and catered for in the many small restaurants and cafes that abound. Discover a nautical paradise on board newly built vessels, with a perfect combination of adventure and relaxation! After returning to ship enjoy the magic scenery as the ship cruises around Dubrovnik city walls to continue to one of the Elaphiti islands for a swim stop. Afternoon arrival in Slano, a peaceful fishermen's village and our starting point to Ston, once fortified small village famous for its oysters situated on Pelješac peninsula. Pelješac peninsula is known as one of the best wine-producing regions in Croatia. After exploring the town we leave to a small nearby village to enjoy the authentic local oyster tasting. Overnight and Captain's dinner with live music in Slano.

As sometimes weather conditions can be very unpredictable, the possibility of our visit will depend on those conditions, however you will be notified of this on time. Cruise towards the island of Vis, once a strategic naval Yugoslav base and restricted to the public. Due to this isolation, Vis has a special charm - "the Mediterranean as it once was" making it really interesting to visit. Try some exquisite wine sorts in one of the Vis traditional wineries. If interested, visit the remains of the Roman thermal place, City museum or simply take a walk enjoying the views. Overnight in the port of Vis.

Day 5, Vis – Hvar – Stari Grad Thursday

In the morning head further towards Hvar, the longest and sunniest island in the Adriatic, with a swim stop and lunch on board. Afternoon arrival in Hvar town followed by a tour of the town - the Renaissance cathedral with its original tower, and the oldest community theatre in Europe founded in 1612. After the tour set sail towards Stari Grad on the island of Hvar, one of the oldest cities in Europe where you will overnight.

Day 6, Stari Grad – Trogir, Friday

Early morning departure to the old Dalmatian town Trogir. Trogir is sometimes referred to as "miniature Venice" or a "mini Dubrovnik" because of its ancient walls, or a floating museum town - as it has a masterful architecture including some stunning Venetian palaces. After disembark in Trogir we will take the bus to visit Krka National Park. You will discover the pristine nature and waterfalls of the Krka National Park, an area extremely rich with flora and fauna. Overnight in Trogir.
