

EMINENCE GALAPAGOS LUXURY 7A CRUISE

Explore the wild heart of the Galapagos on an immersive expedition through Isabela, Fernandina, Santiago, Santa Cruz and Bartholomew Islands. Discover volcanic landscapes, pristine marine habitats and remarkable endemic wildlife, from giant tortoises and marine iguanas to Galapagos penguins, flightless cormorants, sea lions and flamingos. Highlights include walking across ancient and recent lava fields, snorkelling in crystal-clear waters, kayaking and paddleboarding through sheltered bays, and visiting important conservation and breeding centres. With daily excursions combining land and sea exploration, this Galapagos cruise offers an exceptional introduction to the archipelago's unique wildlife, geology and conservation story.

ITINERARY

DAY 1. SATURDAY

Santa Cruz Island, Baltra Airport

Your arrival and reception point in the Galapagos, offering seamless assistance and direct transfer to the M/C Eminence to begin your cruise.

Santa Cruz Island, Charles Darwin Research Station

Discover the iconic Galapagos giant tortoises at different stages of growth and learn about vital conservation efforts at this famous Charles Darwin Research Station site on Santa Cruz Island.

DAY 2. SUNDAY

Isabela Island, Tintoreras - Sierra Negra Volcano

Experience the ultimate contrast of Isabela Island by snorkeling with reef sharks at the volcanic Tintoreras islets before hiking up to the awe-inspiring caldera of the massive Sierra Negra Volcano.

Isabela Island, Arnaldo Tupiza Breeding Center
Learn about crucial conservation programs and observe native giant tortoises at various stages of development at this essential wildlife sanctuary on Isabela Island.

DAY 3. MONDAY

Isabela Island, Moreno Point
Walk across striking black lava fields to discover hidden inland lagoons teeming with flamingos, marine iguanas, and unique coastal wildlife.

Isabela Island, Elizabeth Bay
Enjoy a serene dinghy ride through lush mangrove channels to spot Galapagos penguins, flightless cormorants, and sea turtles in their peaceful marine habitat.

DAY 4. TUESDAY

Fernandina Island, Espinoza Point
Witness one of the worlds most pristine ecosystems by walking among massive colonies of marine iguanas, flightless cormorants, and sea lions on raw volcanic shorelines.

Isabela Island, Vicente Roca Point
Snorkel through deep, nutrient-rich waters beneath towering coastal cliffs to encounter abundant sea turtles, rays, and penguins in a dramatic marine setting.

DAY 5. WEDNESDAY

Santiago Island, Egas Port
Walk along a rugged volcanic coastline to explore vibrant tide pools and discover a hidden grotto where endemic Galapagos fur seals rest in shaded lava crevices.

Santiago Island, Buccaneer Cove - Espumilla Beach
Kayak past dramatic pirate-history cliffs at Buccaneer Cove before relaxing on the soft sands of Espumilla Beach, a vital seasonal nesting site for sea turtles.

DAY 6. THURSDAY

Bartholomew Island
Climb the wooden stairway to the summit for a breathtaking view of iconic Pinnacle Rock, followed by snorkeling in pristine waters alongside tropical fish and Galapagos penguins.

Santiago Island, Sullivan Bay
Walk across a massive, recent lava field to marvel at the fascinating geologic textures and pioneering plants growing right through the hardened volcanic flow.

DAY 7. FRIDAY

Santiago Island, Chinese Hat
Snorkel in turquoise waters and walk past active sea lion colonies on this distinctively shaped volcanic islet off the coast of Santiago Island.

Santa Cruz Island, Dragon Hill
Hike past massive cacti and inland flamingo lagoons to spot beautifully reintroduced Galapagos land iguanas roaming their native dry forest habitat.
