ETERNAL CYCLADES 7 NIGHTS GREECE SAILING CRUISE

Athens and the Cyclades form the vibrant heart of this journey, blending ancient history, volcanic landscapes, and idyllic island life. From the philosophical echoes of the Agora in Piraeus to Milos's colourful cliffs and secluded beaches, each port offers a unique experience. Chania and Santorini showcase the charm of Crete and the iconic Cycladic architecture, while Bodrum and Amorgos reveal layers of history and dramatic coastal vistas. Hydra's car-free streets and timeless mansions complete a journey rich in culture, scenery, and Mediterranean lifestyle.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Piraeus (Port of Athens), Greece

Walking in the shadow of the Acropolis in the Agora, you can almost hear the voices of Plato, Socrates and Aristotle arguing about who was the greatest philosopher. Ancient Athens, the birthplace of democracy and epicenter of western civilization, is a city for all eternity. Piraeus is the port of Athens, just 15km from the city and 45km from the airport.

Day 2 Milos - Adamas, Greece

Milos, a gem of the Cyclades Islands, is famous for its striking volcanic landscape and colourful cliffs, as well as its more than 70 unique beaches boasting crystal-clear waters. Adamas, the island's main port, is nestled in a sweeping natural bay. This bustling harbour town boasts inviting tavernas where visitors can sample local delicacies and enjoy the gentle hum of fishing boats bobbing on the turquoise water. Venture inland to discover Milos's hidden gems, such as Sarakiniko Bay's otherworldly landscape, Plaka's narrow streets and breathtaking views, and the vibrant fishermen's village of Klima with its distinctive 'symmata' houses. Adamas is a welcoming gateway and a serene retreat in the heart of the Cyclades.

Day 3 Chania - Crete, Greece

At the heart of Crete's western coast, Chania blends history and daily life with quiet charm. Its Venetian harbor, with the lighthouse at its edge, is a gathering place where the sea reflects the colors of old façades. Lose yourself in narrow alleys filled with the scent of jasmine, taste meze in a shaded courtyard, and watch the afternoon light soften the walls of ancient houses. Beyond the city, olive groves and rugged hills reveal Crete's natural beauty and proud traditions. Whether savouring local meze and wine by the water or simply soaking in the warm island atmosphere, Chania offers a truly unforgettable Cretan experience.

Day 4 Santorini, Greece

Perched on the cliffs of the caldera, this volcanic island offers breathtaking panoramic views, whitewashed houses with blue roofs and picturesque cobbled streets. Explore the charming villages of Oia and Fira, relax on unique black or red sand beaches, and enjoy exquisite local cuisine accompanied by renowned wines. A truly photogenic island with a reputation to match.

Day 5 Bodrum, Türkiye

Bodrum is a coastal town in Türkiye's Aegean region, renowned for its unique blend of culture, history and natural beauty. Once known as Halicarnassus, home to one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, its ruins are only partially visible today. Nevertheless, they offer a fascinating insight into the history of the region.

Day 6 Amorgos, Greece

Amorgos cliff-clinging monastery of Hozoviotissas has one of the most spectacular locations of any in Greece. Only a few monks live in the cavernous 50-room monastery, but the view from their terrace aerie might make you think they had all flown to heaven from this very spot.

Day 7 Hydra, Greece

Hydra is a town of stately mansions all built around 1800 by blockade runners who had made fortunes outwitting the British during the Napoleonic Wars. As there are no cars, for the spectacular view from the Monastery of Ilias you'll have to ride a donkey to the top.
