

GALAPAGOS 6 DAY SEA STAR CRUISE A

Explore the unparalleled wildlife and dramatic landscapes of the Galapagos Islands on this 6-day Sea Star cruise. From the towering cliffs and breeding grounds of Española to the unique flora and giant tortoises of San Cristobal, each day offers opportunities for hiking, snorkeling, kayaking, and close encounters with remarkable wildlife. Witness colonies of sea lions, colourful marine life, and iconic birds such as blue-footed boobies and waved albatrosses, while exploring pristine beaches, volcanic formations, and historic sites across multiple islands.

ITINERARY

Day 1. San Cristobal

San Cristobal Island welcomes you in the morning. After airport transfer and settling into your cabin, enjoy lunch and a welcome briefing. In the afternoon, visit the David Rodriguez Breeding Center "La Galapaguera" to see giant tortoises and local birdlife on easy hiking trails.

Day 2. Española

Morning excursion to Suarez Point, home to waved albatrosses, Nazca boobies, and a dramatic blowhole--ideal for photography and hiking. In the afternoon, explore Gardner Bay, Gardner Islet, and Osborn Islet, relaxing on white-sand beaches, observing sea lions, and snorkelling among tropical fish.

Day 3. Floreana

Morning visit to Cormorant Point to spot flamingoes and explore green and white sand beaches. Snorkel at Devil's Crown, a rich marine site, then hike to Baroness Viewing Point to enjoy stunning vistas and learn local legends. Later, visit Post Office Bay, where a historic barrel continues to serve as a visitor mail drop.

Day 4. Santa Fé & South Plaza

Hike on Santa Fe Island to encounter land iguanas and giant Opuntia cacti. In the afternoon, explore South Plaza Island, home to sea lion colonies, colourful land iguanas, and abundant seabirds along dramatic cliffs.

Day 5. North Seymour & Santa Cruz

North Seymour offers sightings of blue-footed boobies, frigate birds, sea lions, and marine iguanas with options for hiking and snorkelling. In the afternoon, visit Bachas Beach on Santa Cruz Island to see nesting sea turtles, shorebirds, and World War II remnants.

Day 6. Mosquera & Departure

Morning visit to Mosquera Islet, a haven for sea lions, shorebirds, and occasional orca sightings. After exploring the reef and beaches, transfer to Baltra Airport for your flight back to the mainland.
