ITINERARY

Day 1 | Good Friday ATHENS, MARINA ZEAS (PIRAEUS) - POROS

Join us at Marina Zea in Athens for a welcome drink and meet your crew and fellow passengers. We then set sail for Poros, arriving just in time for dinner. Today offers a chance to experience Greece's Good Friday traditions. Locals decorate the Epitaphios, the symbolic bier of Christ, with flowers, before it is carried in a solemn evening procession through the streets during the Service of Lamentation, honouring Christ's death -- a moving and unforgettable sight. Enjoy an evening walk ashore in Poros, before we continue our overnight journey to Poliegos. Overnight at sea.

Day 2 | Holy Saturday POLIEGOS - FOLEGANDROS

Wake up in Poliegos, an uninhabited island known for its stunning beaches and turquoise waters. The hardest decision of the day will be whether to dive straight into the sea or enjoy a relaxed breakfast on deck. We recommend you do both. A morning swim stop is followed by a BBQ on board as we continue sailing. In the afternoon, we head to Folegandros, one of the Aegean's most beautiful and lesser-known island. Explore Chora, the island's picturesque main town, with its whitewashed alleys and the Venetian castle perched above the sea. In the evening, experience the moving Easter celebrations at the church of Chora. On Easter Sunday night at midnight, the priest proclaims "Christos Anesti" ("Christ is Risen") and the Resurrection flame is shared from person to person. The atmosphere is deeply spiritual, with church bells ringing continuously and boats in the harbour sounding their horns in celebration. Overnight in Folegandros.

Day 3 | Easter Sunday SANTORINI

Santorini calling. We'll arrive early with plenty of time to explore the capital, Fira, as well as the smaller village of Oia with its blue-domed views over the caldera. This is the place to get those Instagram shots. On board, our Hotel Manager and Chef will be grilling lamb to mark this special day. Enjoy a lively Easter celebration all morning long with Greek music, traditional snacks, and local wine. As evening falls, enjoy the world-famous Santorini sunset with sundowners on deck. Overnight in Santorini (on anchor).

Day 4 | Easter Monday ANTIPAROS - PAROS

Today we'll sail to Paros, with a quick stop in a beautiful bay on neighboring Antiparos. Yes, you're welcome to dive in. In Paros, explore both the port city of Parikia, and Naoussa - a quaint, and incredibly photogenic village in the north. In the evening you will have time to enjoy your dinner in a tavern overlooking the sunset. Overnight in Paros.

Day 5 | Easter Tuesday DELOS - MYKONOS

Before waving ahoy to Mykonos, we'll stop for a few hours at sacred Delos. The island is an archaeological site, and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Join us on a guided tour before we sail to the cosmopolitan island of Mykonos. Here, the night is yours. Join the jet-set and vibe at the hottest bars and restaurants. Overnight in Mykonos - in case you don't want to leave the party early!

Day 6 | Easter Wednesday SYROS

Wake up and refresh with a morning dip in the sea then all aboard for the trip to Syros, the capital of the Cyclades. Here you can relax, rest, and rejuvenate on the beach, or you can take part in our optional tour and explore the town and its unique architecture. Overnight in Syros.

Day 7 | Easter Thursday KYTHNOS - MARINA ZEAS (PIRAEUS)

We begin our journey back to Athens, with a last opportunity to jump into the inviting sea at Kolones Bay, Kythnos. Dry off as we sail towards Cape Sounion to view the Temple of Poseidon from the sundeck. On arrival back at Marina Zea, enjoy a Captain's Farewell Dinner before bedding down for one more night on board.

Day 8 | Easter Friday ATHENS - MARINA ZEAS (PIRAEUS)

Breakfast and disembarkation will take place between 8:30 and 9:00 a.m. But this is not goodbye -- only farewell for now. We hope you enjoyed the Easter celebrations and that your fellow cabin mates have become friends you'll keep in touch. As for us, we look forward to welcoming you aboard one of our cruises again soon.
