

GREEK ISLAND GULET CRUISE - NORTH DODECANESE

This 8-day North Dodecanese sailing experience combines swimming in crystal-clear waters, authentic island life and cultural highlights, starting and ending in Kos. The route explores secluded gems such as Pserimos, Lipsi, and the remote island of Levitha, alongside iconic destinations like Kalymnos, Leros, and Patmos. Guests enjoy a balanced mix of relaxed sailing, swimming in pristine bays, charming harbours, and historic landmarks, including the Monastery of Saint John and the Cave of the Apocalypse. Ideal for travelers seeking tranquility, natural beauty, and genuine Aegean character, this itinerary offers a refined yet unhurried sailing adventure through one of Greece's most captivating island groups.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Kos

Arrive in Kos, check-in, overnight in Marina.

Day 2: Kos to Kalymnos

Kos to Kalymnos (Vathi/Pothia) - Known for sponge diving and steep cliffs.

A short first cruise north to Kalymnos Island where we will moor at* Vathi - set in as tunning fjord-like inlet and with a very sheltered anchorage and authentic village feel.

Kalymnos is famous for sponge diving and rock climbing.

Included: B, L, D

Day 3: Kalymnos to Leros (Pandeli/Lakki)

Kalymnos to Leros (Panteli/Lakki) - Visit the Italian-influenced town and, castle.

After a longer sail to Leros we will moor in Agia Marina (picturesque and lively). We will visit the Castle of Panteli and swim at Pandeli Beach. Enjoy lovely sunset views.

The Atmosphere is relaxed and less touristy than Kos._
