

GRENADA ROUNDTRIP 10 NIGHTS CARIBBEAN CRUISE

This roundtrip sailing from St. George's explores the southern Caribbean's most secluded anchorages and culturally layered islands. From Grenada's spice-scented capital, the route reaches the quiet shores of Charlotteville and the crescent beach of Englishman's Bay before continuing to the protected reefs of Tobago Cays and the white sands of Paradise Beach. Calls in Charlestown Bay, Admiralty Bay and Saline Bay highlight classic Grenadines scenery, while historic Saint-Pierre and volcanic Soufriere add depth through colonial heritage and dramatic landscapes before returning to Grenada.

ITINERARY

Day 1 St. George's, Grenada

The aromas of nutmeg, cinnamon and vanilla baking in the sun - these are the tropical flavours of Grenada. From the horseshoe shaped Carenage at St. George's, follow the Sendall Tunnel (hand-built in 1895) to the Esplanade and old Ft. George for a spectacular view of Grenada.

Day 2 Charlotteville, Tobago

Charlotteville is a tranquil fishing village nestled along the rugged northeastern coast of the island, known for its unspoiled beauty and relaxed atmosphere. With its stunning vistas of lush green hills meeting the turquoise Caribbean Sea passengers will discover the laid-back charm of this hidden gem in Tobago.

Day 3 Englishman's Bay, Tobago

Englishman's Bay in Tobago is a stunning crescent-shaped beach nestled along the island's rugged northern coastline. Renowned for its unspoiled beauty and tranquil ambiance, the bay boasts powdery white sands and crystal-clear turquoise waters framed by lush greenery.

Day 4 Tobago Cays, Grenadines

Four small islets, virtually deserted but enormously appealing for those who love underwater exploration, Tobago Cays is a national park where snorkelling is superb.

Day 5 Paradise Beach, Carriacou, Grenada

A breathtaking stretch of pristine shoreline, renowned for its powdery white sands and crystal-clear turquoise waters. Passengers can unwind under the shade of swaying palm trees, take leisurely strolls along the shore, or indulge in water activities like snorkeling and swimming in the warm Caribbean Sea.

Day 6 Charlestown Bay, Canouan, Grenadines

Nestled amidst lush tropical foliage, Charlestown Bay offers visitors a serene retreat surrounded by natural beauty. The bay is perfect for swimming, snorkeling, and sunbathing, while nearby amenities provide opportunities for beachside relaxation and local culinary delights.

Day 7 Admiralty Bay, Bequia, Grenadines

Star Clipper usually anchors in the lee of ruggedly beautiful Young Island lying just 54 feet off the southern tip of St. Vincent which is just a 10 minute ferry ride away. The natural harbour of Port Elizabeth at Bequia the world. The exquisite waterfront beckons you for a gentle stroll along the harbour.

Day 8 Saint-Pierre, Martinique

Known as the "Little Paris of the Caribbean" before its destruction by the eruption of Mount Pelee in 1902, Saint-Pierre still boasts remnants of its colonial past, including the ruins of the theater and cathedral. Today, the town is a charming destination offering visitors a glimpse into its tragic yet fascinating history, alongside picturesque waterfront views and vibrant markets.

Day 9 Soufriere, St. Lucia

Marigot Bay, one of the prettiest anchorages in the Caribbean, is surrounded by lush hills and ringed by drooping coconut palms. Our alternate stop, the little Port Town of SoufriÃ¨re was named after a nearby volcano. Prettier sights are to be seen at Diamond Falls and Mineral Baths where you can walk through the gardens and take a dip in the pool under the waterfalls.

Day 10 Saline Bay, Mayreau, Grenadines

With its powdery white sands, crystal-clear turquoise waters, and lush greenery, Saline Bay offers visitors a secluded paradise to relax and unwind. The bay is perfect for swimming, snorkeling, and soaking in the stunning Caribbean views, making it a cherished destination for those seeking serenity amidst nature's splendor.

Day 11 St. George's, Grenada

The aromas of nutmeg, cinnamon and vanilla baking in the sun - these are the tropical flavours of Grenada. From the horseshoe shaped Carenage at St. George's, follow the Sendall Tunnel (hand-built in 1895) to the Esplanade and old Ft. George for a spectacular view of Grenada.
