A truly enchanted interlude, combining comfort, rest and entertainment.

Day 3 - Halifax

A historical port city on the Canadian east coast, Halifax , surrounded by enchanting nature, stands out as the provincial capital and the cultural hub of Nova Scotia. The city played an important strategic military role in the two world wars and was also the largest Royal Navy base*during the American Revolutionary War and the Napoleonic Wars. Most of the victims of the Titanic disaster were laid to rest here in the Fairview cemetery, which you will have the chance to discover. At this port of call, you will also have the opportunity to visit the picturesque fishing village of Peggy 's Cove and discover its breathtaking natural landscapes.

Day 4 - Sydney

Founded in 1785, Sydney is located in the province of Nova Scotia, on Cape Breton Island. The city contributed to the allied war effort by becoming a base for the supply convoys bound for Great Britain during the Second World War. Today, tourism has supplanted mining and the Sydney Mines Heritage Museum & Fossil Centre makes for an interesting visit. Walkers will enjoy hiking along the lighthouse coastal trail through the wild nature of Cape Breton, with stunning views over the ocean.

Explore nearby Prince Edward Island National Park and the Anne of Green Gables House --inspiration for Lucy Maud Montgomery's classic novel. ### Day 8 - Saint-John, New Brunswick

Immerse yourself in the maritime atmosphere of Saint John , anchored in southern New Brunswick at the mouth of the Saint John River, where Canada's history is reflected along the shores of the Bay of Fundy. Saint John is a port city blending Victorian architecture, industrial heritage and contemporary energy. Surrounded by rugged coastline and picturesque villages , Saint John invites you to discover unspoilt nature , abundant wildlife and an authentic culture deeply connected to the ocean.

Day 9 - Eastport

At the Canadian border, Eastport is, as its name suggests, the easternmost city in the United States. It is here that, in 1604, the first French people to arrive in the New World settled. Discover their story at the Saint Croix Island International Historic Site. In the late 19th century, this charming town in Maine grew significantly as a result of the development of the canned sardine industry. At the time, the town boasted more than a dozen sardine canneries. The architecture and some mansions from this period live on, affording the town a distinct elegance. One of the attractions of this town is undeniably its proximity to the Old Sow Whirlpool , the largest tidal whirlpool in the Northern Hemisphere, where visitors can watch the birds and marine mammals that come to feed on the nutrients driven up to the surface.

Day 10 - Rockland

Nestling on Penobscot Bay in New England, Rockland is famous for its beautiful seascapes.
