

INLAND WATERWAYS AND IDYLLIC ISLES

Sail over the sea to the remote and beautiful islands of the Inner Hebrides, and voyage along one of Great Britain's most famous inland waterways, the Caledonian Canal on board Lord of the Glens which offers a unique perspective on Scotland in grand style. Visit medieval castles, sacred Iona, the isles of Mull, Eigg, and Skye, take a ride on the scenic railway to beautiful Glenfinnan, and see the storied battlefield of Culloden. Sail along the remarkable, 60 mile long Caledonian Canal, which connects four of Scotland's famous lochs; Loch Dochfour, Loch Ness, Loch Oich, and Loch Lochy.

ITINERARY

Day 1 - Kyle of Lochalsh – Embarkation.

Arrive in Kyle of Lochalsh and embark Lord of the Glens.

Day 2 - Kyle of Lochalsh – Eilean Donan Castle. Armadale, Skye – Armadale Castle and Clan Donald Centre.

Cameras at the ready for our visit to the iconic Eilean Donan Castle, situated on an island at the point where three great sea lochs meet, and surrounded by majestic scenery. Departing from Kyle of Lochalsh we sail to the Isle of Skye where we discover the epic history of Clan Donald at Armadale Castle and the Museum of the Isles.

Day 3 - Inverie - Walks with ranger. Tobermory, Mull - Free time to explore at leisure

We come ashore at Inverie -- the largest settlement in mainland Britain without a road connection -- for an early morning spent exploring the wild Knoydart peninsula alongside a knowledgeable local ranger. Together you'll roam the rugged headland and ancient community woodland that frame the village, as your guide brings to life the peninsula's remarkable flora, fauna, history and heritage, and shares what it truly means to call this remote corner of Scotland home.

We then round Ardnamurchan Point, the most westerly tip of the British mainland, before making for the Isle of Mull and its irresistible capital, Tobermory. The town's famous waterfront - a row of brightly painted houses originally built by the British Fisheries Company to accommodate its workers - is one of Scotland's most cheerful and distinctive harbour scenes, and free time ashore allows you to explore its shops, galleries, and excellent local produce at your leisure.

Day 4 - Craignure, Mull – Visit to Iona. Sail the Sound of Mull to Oban.

From Craignure we travel to the Isle of Iona, the last resting place of some 50 Scottish Kings and where St. Columba introduced Christianity to Scotland. Here we can explore the restored Benedictine Abbey and absorb the tranquility of this sacred isle.

An early evening sail brings us to Oban, the seafood capital of the Highlands.

Day 5 - Oban - Walking tour and McCaig's Folly. Cruise Loch Linnhe to Corpach. Scenic West Highland Railway passage over the Glenfinnan Viaduct.

Explore Oban, the gateway to the Isles, on a guided walk up to McCaig's Tower. This prominent landmark, on Battery Hill, was inspired by the Roman Colosseum. Later we sail Loch Linnhe, passing mysterious lochs and islands until we reach the Caledonian Canal at Corpach and take a scheduled service along part of the West Highland Railway over the renowned Day 6 - Transit Neptune's Staircase to Banavie. Cruise the Caledonian Canal to Fort Augustus.

Today we relax on board as Lord of the Glens ascends Neptune's Staircase, a set of eight interconnected locks, which lift the vessel 64 feet to Banavie, and sail through Lochs Lochy and Oich before transitting the tranquil, tree-lined Laggan Avenue and descending the series of locks to Loch Ness. In the evening we reach Fort Augustus where we berth overnight.

Day 7 - Cruise Loch Ness and the Caledonian Canal to Inverness. Inverness - Culloden and Clava Cairns.

This morning, we enter Loch Ness, pausing approximately half-way for a photo opportunity in front of the romantic ruins of Urquhart Castle. Our final visit is Culloden, the infamous battlefield where Bonnie Prince Charlie's Jacobite forces were defeated in 1746, and observe the ancient standing stones of Clava Cairns, ahead of the farewell reception and dinner at our overnight berth in Inverness.

Day 8 - Inverness – Disembarkation.

Disembark in Inverness after breakfast, for the onward journey home.

PASSENGER CAPACITY:

BUILT/REFURBISHED:

Until recently, size-limiting locks prevented travelers from seeing the Highlands from the remarkable vantage point of the inland waterway that links Scotland's most famous lochs. Now, with the style of a classic luxury yacht, the 48-guest Lord of the Glens journeys through this spectacular countryside in spectacular style. The moment you step aboard the Lord of the Glens you are surrounded by the rich mahogany finishes of the reception area and lobby. The ship is magnificently appointed and brings to mind that one is in a stately country manor rather than a five-star ship. Cabins: Cabins are tasteful, comfortable and spacious with wonderful outside views. Most cabins have large picture windows (four have two large portholes). Facilities include a private bathroom with shower, individually controlled air-conditioning and heating, satellite television, music system, hairdryer, telephone, safety deposit box, bathrobes and toiletries. Public Areas: With all round teak decks, hardwood finished interiors and fine fabrics, the Lord of the Glens offers a stylish and relaxing ambience. The two lounges and two open-air viewing areas are social hubs aboard shop, and the small library and cozy bar are a refuge for the more solitary. Meals: Served in the elegant single-seating Dining Room. Chefs create healthy, delicious cuisine served by an attentive staff.
