Pre-cruise suggestions: Lavrion is not only the closest port to Athens international airport, but it also boasts a rich and fascinating history. Begin or end your adventure discovering this picturesque port, once a booming mining town. Situated on a small bay opposite the island of Makronissos, a former exile site for political prisoners, Lavrion still holds a unique charm and offers many sightseeing opportunities. For a more slowpaced visit, the Lavrion Marina is perfect for a relaxing stroll along the waterfront, lined with charming cafes and fresh seafood tavernas.

DAY 2 Ithaca

Just before arriving in Ithaca, we will make a refreshing swim-stop in a tranquil cove, surrounded by calm, crystal-clear waters. Take a moment to unwind, swim, or simply soak up the serene atmosphere. Lunch will be served on board as we sail leisurely toward Ithaca. In the early afternoon, we will arrive at the island, the legendary homeland of Odysseus, rich in history and myth. Overnight in Ithaca.

DAY 3 Kefalonia (Fiskardo)

Enjoy a swim in the crystal-clear waters or take the opportunity to visit the impressive Drogarati Caves before we set sail for the picturesque bay of Fiskardo.
