

ISTANBUL TO ANTALYA 11 NIGHTS TÜRKIYE SAILING CRUISE

Sailing from Istanbul to Antalya, this voyage traces Turkiye's Aegean and Mediterranean shores, linking classical cities, sheltered harbours and island outposts. From Dikili with access to the ancient acropolis of Pergamon, continue to Çe me and across to Pythagoreio on Samos. Discover the spiritual heritage of Patmos, the relaxed peninsula of Datça, the wetlands of the Dalyan River, and the Lycian coastline through Fethiye and Ka . A call at Kastellorizo precedes arrival in Antalya, framed by the Taurus Mountains, concluding a journey defined by layered history and varied coastal scenery.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Istanbul, Türkiye

Throughout thousands of years Istanbul's geographical position has maintained its importance. Today it is a huge metropolis connecting continents, cultures and religions and is home to eleven million people and one of the greatest business and cultural centres of the region.

Day 2 At sea

Each Star Clippers ship offers a traditional and elegant way to see the world. Feel the wind fill the sails and gently carry you from one gorgeous destination to the next. During your time on board, you can choose to relax on a sun lounger or cool off in one of the pools on the top deck, while more adventurous passengers may enjoy the opportunity to climb the rigging or even have a go at steering the ship. Alternatively, you can wander the interior areas of the ship and discover relaxing lounges, a revitalising spa (Royal Clipper only) and a peaceful library.

Day 3 Dikili, Türkiye

Dikili is a quiet little town, with a harbour lined with restaurants and shops. It is an ideal starting point for exploring the site of Pergamon, with its acropolis perched 280 metres high and its Asclepion.

Day 4 Cesme, Türkiye

On Turkiye's sun-drenched Aegean coast, Çe me combines laid-back elegance with a touch of old-world charm. Passengers can stroll through its whitewashed streets, shaded by bougainvillea, and browse stylish boutiques or traditional craft shops. The marina buzzes with life - chic cafes, sailing yachts, and the scent of the sea drifting on the breeze. Beyond the harbour, thermal springs and golden beaches invite pure relaxation, while nearby Alaçatı enchants with its stone houses and vibrant atmosphere. Whether savouring local seafood or simply watching the sunset over the castle, Çe me captures the very essence of the Turkish Riviera.

Day 5 Pythagoreio - Samos, Greece

Named in honour of the great philosopher and mathematician, Pythagoreio on the island of Samos combines ancient history with authentic island charm. Passengers can stroll along the pretty harbour, where fishing boats and yachts sway gently beside waterside cafes, or explore nearby archaeological remains that whisper of the island's glorious past. The site of the Tunnel of Eupalinos - a feat of ancient engineering - lies close by, while shaded tavernas invite a leisurely lunch by the sea. Blending history, tranquillity, and gentle beauty, Samos offers a serene taste of the Aegean, steeped in wisdom and timeless grace.

Day 6 Patmos, Greece

This serene island is known as the site of the apocalyptic revelations of St. John the Divine, The cave where he is said to have lived is now the site of the Monastery of the Apocalypse. It houses priceless icons and manuscripts in its treasury.

Day 7 Datca, Türkiye

Set along a sunlit peninsula where the Aegean meets the Mediterranean, Datça is a tranquil harbour town cherished for its natural beauty and slow-paced charm. Passengers may choose to stay ashore, wandering its flower-lined streets, sampling local honey, or simply enjoying the ship at anchor. Alternatively, an optional excursion to the ancient city of Knidos is available at an additional cost. There, among marble ruins and sweeping sea views, history comes vividly to life. Whether exploring or unwinding, Datça embodies the easy rhythm of coastal Turkiye - serene, sun-kissed, and irresistibly inviting.

Day 8 Dalyan River, Türkiye

At first glance, this is a picture one hardly expects to see in Turkiye - A lovely, unspoiled lake teeming with fish, a lush marshy delta, verdant farmlands, a lazy, reedfringed river meandering into the sea. On shore, you can see ruins of the Lycian city of Caunos, with its basilica and fortifications looming over the green marsh where endangered Caretta loggerhead turtles hatch in the spring.

Day 9 Fethiye, Türkiye

Surrounded by forested hills and turquoise bays, Fethiye is a vibrant gateway to Turkiye's Turquoise Coast. The town combines ancient history with a relaxed modern atmosphere, where cafes overlook the marina and life flows at a gentle pace. Passengers can stroll along the waterfront, wander through Paspatur, Fethiye's old town, with its narrow streets lined with shops, cafes, and small stalls selling textiles, souvenirs, spices, fresh produce, and local handicrafts, or visit the impressive Lycian rock tombs carved into the cliffs above the town. Fethiye is also an ideal starting point for discovery, with nearby highlights such as the abandoned village of Kayakoy, scenic boat trips along the coast, and the world-famous Blue Lagoon of Öludeniz.

Day 10 Kas, Türkiye

Tucked between rugged cliffs and the clear blue waters of the Lycian coast, Ka is a delightful harbour town with a laid-back Mediterranean spirit. Passengers can wander its cobbled streets, where whitewashed houses are draped in bougainvillea and cafes spill out onto sun-dappled squares. The marina hums with yachts and diving boats, while nearby coves invite a swim in crystal seas. Those wishing to explore further can visit the ancient ruins of Antiphellos. Ka offers pure Turkish coastal charm and tranquillity.

Day 11 Kastellorizo, Greece

Tiny but utterly enchanting, Kastellorizo is Greece's easternmost island and lies close to the Turkish coast. Kastellorizo is small but full of color. Its harbor glows with pastel houses mirrored in the water, and the sound of waves replaces the rush of time. Stroll along the seafront promenade, where fishing boats bob beside elegant neoclassical houses, or relax at a cafe beneath flowering bougainvillea. Kastellorizo reminds you how peaceful isolation can feel when beauty is everywhere around you.

Day 12 Antalya, Türkiye

Framed by the soaring Taurus Mountains and the shimmering Mediterranean, Antalya is a radiant jewel of Turkiye's southern coast. Passengers arriving here discover a perfect harmony of history, culture, and seaside beauty. The old town of Kaleiçi, with its winding lanes, Ottoman-era houses, and lively bazaars, invites gentle exploration, while the old port below bustles with elegant yachts and wooden gulets. Whether exploring ancient ruins, sampling local cuisine, or simply soaking in the warmth of the Turkish sun, Antalya promises unforgettable moments for every traveler. The cruise port is located 12 km west of the old town.
