

MALTA, BALEARICS & SPAIN 9 NIGHTS MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE

Sailing from Malaga to Valletta, this voyage links Andalusia, the Balearic Islands and Sardinia with Malta's historic harbours. From Malaga's Moorish Alcazaba of Malaga and nearby Alhambra to Almeria and Cartagena, the route traces Spain's layered Roman and Arab heritage. Calls in Ibiza and Mahon showcase the character of the Balearics before crossing to Cagliari. The journey concludes in Malta, exploring Gozo and the fortified capital of Valletta, shaped by the legacy of the Knights of St. John.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Malaga, Spain

Malaga's fortress palace of the Alcazaba and the Castillo de Gibralfaro are splendid examples of Moorish architecture. But it is in Granada that you can see the most romantic and magnificent expression of the Arabesque style in the glorious Alhambra Palace.

Day 2 Almeria, Spain

The city of Almeria is Andalucia's most eastern capital. It is located at the foot of a mountain range. Not to be missed is the magnificent Alcazaba, an Arab fortress built by the Caliph of Cordoba, Abd-erRahman with three huge walled enclosures (in the second of which are the remains of a mosque, converted to a chapel by the Catholic kings). The Alcazaba is the second largest Muslim fortress in Andalucia behind the Alhambra in Granada.

Day 3 Cartagena, Spain

Cartagena, a historic port city steeped in rich history and fascinating culture. Nestling between the hills and the Mediterranean Sea, the city offers an enchanting mix of historic sites, including the Roman Theatre, picturesque beaches and a lively atmosphere.

Day 4 Ibiza - Balearic Islands, Spain

Ibiza, a Spanish island renowned for its white sandy beaches, crystal-clear waters, lively nightlife and cosmopolitan atmosphere. Ibiza offers unspoilt natural landscapes, a rich cultural history and delicious cuisine. Dalt Vila, the medieval quarter on the hill overlooking Ibiza town, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site with narrow streets brimming with atmosphere.

Day 5 Mahon - Menorca - Balearic Islands, Spain

Gracious Georgian buildings that climb the steep hills backing the Moll Ponent. Mahon's heritage also includes the invention of mayonnaise and the first distillation of gin from juniper berries.

Day 6 At sea

Each Star Clippers ship offers a traditional and elegant way to see the world. Feel the wind fill the sails and gently carry you from one gorgeous destination to the next. During your time on board, you can choose to relax on a sun lounger or cool off in one of the pools on the top deck, while more adventurous passengers may enjoy the opportunity to climb the rigging or even have a go at steering the ship. Alternatively, you can wander the interior areas of the ship and discover relaxing lounges, a revitalising spa (Royal Clipper only) and a peaceful library.

Day 7 Cagliari - Sardinia, Italy

Cagliari is the capital city of the Italian island of Sardinia. It's known for it's hilltop Castello, a medieval walled quarter situated high above. the rest of the town. It has a rich and varied heritage reflected in it's buildings that includes Baroque churches, Medieval towers, Italian Art Nouveau as well as Roman stonework. Sardinia's fabled beaches are also accessible and as you would expect the restaurants in and around the town are excellent to.
