MARSEILLE TO CIVITAVECCHIA SMALL SHIP CRUISE

Leaving Marseille in our wake, we cross into Spanish waters for a few days, calling first at Roses in Catalonia, home of the elBulli museum and a landscape that inspired Picasso, then, Barcelona, for Gaudi's whimsical architecture and the lively tapas bars of the Gothic Quarter. A relaxing day at sea offers a chance to recharge before we arrive in Monte Carlo just in time for the Monaco Grand Prix. Expect plenty of excitement as race weekend takes over these historic streets and witness one of the world's most thrilling sports spectacles. We overnight here to give you plenty of time to soak it all up. Then we cross the border to experience Riviera life Italian-style at chic Portofino and wander its charming, pastel-colored streets. Onwards to Livorno, for Tuscany; the Leaning Tower of Pisa and Chianti vineyards will be within your grasp. Finally, we reach Civitavecchia, Rome's port, where our journey ends.

Barcelona's seaside beauty, sprawling beaches, eclectic architecture, world-class tapas and Tempranillo are all reasons to fall in love with the city of Gaudi. Indeed, the treasures here are many and diverse, captivating travelers and experts alike. In fact, nine important sites in the city, seven designed by the famed architect himself, have earned the acclaim of UNESCO.

Day 4 Day at sea

Days 5 - 6 Monte Carlo, Monaco

An ancient principality steeped in rich and colorful history, Monaco was bought from the Genoese in 1309 by the Grimaldis, who still rule as the world's oldest monarchy - presided over today by Prince Albert.
