

MOROCCO & CANARY ISLANDS 9 NIGHTS SMALL SHIP CRUISE

This Atlantic crossing traces the meeting point of Europe and Africa, beginning in southern Spain and sailing along the Moroccan coast before reaching the volcanic landscapes of the Canary Islands. From Moorish fortresses in Malaga and the glamour of Puerto Banus to the cultural crossroads of Ceuta and Tangier, the route reveals layered histories and shifting influences. Casablanca's grand mosque, days under sail, and the dramatic scenery of Fuerteventura, Tenerife, and Gran Canaria complete a voyage shaped by architecture, desert light, and ocean horizons.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Malaga, Spain

Malaga's fortress palace of the Alcazaba and the Castillo de Gibralfaro are splendid examples of Moorish architecture. But it is in Granada that you can see the most romantic and magnificent expression of the Arabesque style in the glorious Alhambra Palace.

Day 2 Puerto Banus (Marbella), Spain

Located on the Costa del Sol of southeast Spain, Puerto Banus is a beautiful Mediterranean playground of white-washed buildings and a marina filled with yachts. The marina was developed in 1970 and over the past four decades has become adored by jet-setters around the globe for its beauty and simplicity. Famous for its prominent visitors, nightlife and luxury boutiques, this a€˜Jewel of the Costa del Sol' is very much the place to see and be seen.

Day 3 Ceuta, Spain

Perched on the northern tip of Africa yet proudly Spanish, Ceuta is a captivating crossroads of cultures. Strategically positioned at the gateway to the Mediterranean on the busy Strait of Gibraltar, this Spanish exclave is a vibrant melting pot of cultures. Its unique location between Europe and Africa has shaped a rich blend of cultures, climates and traditions. For centuries, Christian, Islamic, Jewish, and Hindu communities have lived together here, creating a cosmopolitan city where Europe and Africa converge. Visitors arriving here discover a city where Mediterranean and Moroccan influences blend seamlessly, with palm-lined promenades, an eclectic mix of architectural styles and a bustling market brimming with spices and colours. The ancient city walls and moat recall centuries of history, while seafront cafes offer opportunities for quiet reflection. Ceuta offers a rare and fascinating glimpse of where continents and civilizations meet.

Day 4 Tangier, Morocco

Tangier was the real model for the famous American film 'Casablanca' with Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman. It still retains its faded mongrel charm - not entirely Moroccan, European or African but a heady mix of all three.

Day 5 Casablanca, Morocco

Long before Ingrid Bergman and Bogie made Casablanca a symbol for romance, the city was famous for intrigue and mystery. Veiled by overlapping mantles of French, Arabian and African culture, Casablanca reveals new faces at every turn. The enormous Hassan II Mosque (holding 70,000 worshippers) is the new Morocco, while the fanciful Mauresque buildings in the Medina impart visions of pre-war Casablanca.

Days 6 - 7 At sea

Each Star Clippers ship offers a traditional and elegant way to see the world. Feel the wind fill the sails and gently carry you from one gorgeous destination to the next. During your time on board, you can choose to relax on a sun lounger or cool off in one of the pools on the top deck, while more adventurous passengers may enjoy the opportunity to climb the rigging or even have a go at steering the ship. Alternatively, you can wander the interior areas of the ship and discover relaxing lounges, a revitalising spa (Royal Clipper only) and a peaceful library.

Day 8 Puerto del Rosario, Fuerteventura - Canary Islands, Spain

Puerto del Rosario is the capital of Fuerteventura and is known for its whitewashed houses and open-air artworks, including giant snail sculptures along the harbor promenade. From here you can easily explore the islands attractions such as Islote de Lobos Nature Reserve. For the energetic then windsurfing is a popular choice as Fuerteventura is one of the best places in the world to do sail sports.

Day 9 Santa Cruz de Tenerife - Tenerife, Spain

The island of Tenerife is bisected by steep volcanic mountains cut by garden-like valleys lush with flowers and vegetation. In the capital of Santa Cruz' anthropological museum, learn about the original inhabitants of Tenerife, the stone age Guanche people. Not to be missed is a spectacular drive into the mountains, where 3,718-metre Mount Teide, Spain's tallest mountain, is covered in snow much of the year.

Day 10 Las Palmas - Gran Canaria - Canary Islands, Spain

This 15th-century city with a semitropical colonial ambience is a favorite stopping place for yachts crossing the Atlantic. Visit the Casa Colon, named for the great explorer, and do some exploring of your own by adventuring to the volcanic crater of Caldera de Bandama. Its lunar landscape and exotic vegetation take you to a new world.
