

SCOTTISH ISLES & NORWEGIAN ARCTIC - 10 DAY CRUISE

This 9-night itinerary traces a path between Norway's Arctic landscapes and Scotland's remote isles, shaped by dramatic coastlines, ancient history, and abundant wildlife. Sail through towering fjords and past the jagged peaks of the Lofoten Islands, where fishing villages and seabird colonies flourish. Along Norway's coast, discover small towns and open seascapes alive with maritime traditions before crossing into Scotland. Here, prehistoric stone circles, Iron Age towers, and UNESCO-protected St Kilda reveal stories of past civilizations, while islands such as Staffa and Iona inspire with their local basalt cliffs, sea caves, and spiritual heritage.

ITINERARY

Day 1 The Arctic Circle Glasgow

We begin our expedition in the charming Scottish town of Glasgow. Board Aqua Lares and settle into your luxurious suite, prepared for an adventure into the Arctic Circle.

Day 2 The Arctic Circle Iona & Staffa

Today, we discover Iona, a small island with a profound spiritual legacy as the birthplace of Christianity in Scotland, home to a historic abbey set amid tranquil landscapes. After lunch, head to Staffa, famous for its hexagonal basalt columns and dramatic sea caves, including the legendary Fingal's Cave.

Day 3 The Arctic Circle St Kilda

We land on the remote archipelago of St Kilda, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Towering cliffs host vast seabird colonies, while the remains of stone houses tell of a community that once thrived in this isolated environment. The islands' raw beauty mixed with their rich cultural past makes them one of Scotland's most extraordinary destinations.

Day 4 The Arctic Circle Callanish, Isle Of Lewis

On the Isle of Lewis, we explore the Callanish Stones, a prehistoric circle dating back over 5,000 years. Standing on a windswept moor, these enigmatic stones evoke the mysteries of Scotland's ancient past.

Day 5 The Arctic Circle Mousa Broch

We sail into Scotland's Shetland Islands to visit Mousa Broch, a remarkably preserved Iron Age stone tower. The site offers insight into Scotland's early history, while the surrounding coastline offers the opportunity to encounter to seabirds and seals.

Day 6 The Arctic Circle Ålesund

Arrive in Ålesund, renowned for its Art Nouveau architecture. Colorful buildings and sweeping coastal views make this one of Norway's most distinctive urban landscapes.

Day 7 The Arctic Circle Smøla

Wake up to views of the low-lying islands and open seascapes which define Smøla. The scattered islets provide habitat for rich birdlife, including white-tailed eagles. Small fishing hamlets along the coast give a glimpse into Norway's enduring maritime way of life.

Day 8 The Arctic Circle Brønnøysund

Nestled on the Torget peninsula, Brønnøysund is framed by mountains and islands. Offshore lie natural wonders such as the Torghatten granite dome and the Vega Archipelago, recognized for their geology and cultural history. The town itself reflects Norway's close connection to the sea and coastal traditions.

Day 9 The Arctic Circle Reine, Lofoten & Trollfjorden

Wake up to views of Reine in the Lofoten Islands, where jagged peaks, deep-blue fjords, and colorful fishing villages reflect the region's rich maritime heritage and traditional way of life. After lunch, we continue to Trollfjorden, a narrow, majestic fjord flanked by sheer cliffs rising up to a staggering 1,000 meters. Tender excursions bring you close to soaring eagles and curious seals along the fjord's dramatic shoreline.

Day 10 The Arctic Circle Tromsø

Savor a final breakfast on board before bidding farewell to Aqua Lares and the crew in Tromsø.
