

TANJUNG PUTING NATIONAL PARK - BORNEO RIVER CRUISE

Tanjung Puting National Park is where Kalimantan's orangutan story captured the world's imagination. In 1971, Dr. Birute Galdikas established Camp Leakey in this pristine wilderness, launching what would become the longest continuous study of orangutans. Today, cruising the Sekonyer River aboard a traditional riverboat remains the most magical way to experience this UNESCO Biosphere Reserve--gliding past proboscis monkeys in riverside trees, through mirror-like blackwater rivers, to feeding stations where semi-wild orangutans live naturally in the forest. This is more than wildlife watching; it's witnessing conservation history in action. _5-day and 4-day cruise options are available. Please contact us for more information._

ITINERARY

Day 1 Kumai - Tanjung Harapan

Airport or hotel pickup and transfer to Kumai port. Board your WOW Borneo riverboat and begin your journey into Tanjung Puting National Park. As the boat motors up the Sekonyer River, keep an eye out for proboscis monkeys and birds along the banks. Arrive at Tanjung Harapan, the first feeding station. Walk the forest boardwalk to the platform where rehabilitated orangutans come for supplementary feeding at 3pm. Spot wild orangutans, proboscis monkeys, and hornbills in the surrounding forest. Optional night walk to spot nocturnal wildlife. Dinner and overnight on board. (L/D)

Day 2 Tanjung Harapan - Camp Leakey

After breakfast, the riverboat slowly cruises up the river, spotting wildlife along the forested riverbanks. The riverboat then turns off the muddy Sekonyer River as lunch is served. It slowly makes its way along the pure black waters of the side creek to access Camp Leakey. Dense vegetation is reflected perfectly in the tannin waters. Camp Leakey is where the older orangutans are reintroduced into the rainforest. On arrival, we take an easy forest walk to see the original research station and historical display and to see feeding time at 2 pm. Overnight on board. (B/L/D)

Day 3 Pondok Tanggui - Tanjung Harapan

During your early breakfast, the riverboat cruises slowly downstream along the blackwater canal, spotting wildlife along the forested riverbanks, then turns into the muddy Sekonyer River. We are headed for Pondok Tangguy, the centre for new ex-captive orangutans, to see feeding time at 9 o'clock. On return to the boat, lunch is served as we continue slowly downstream spotting wildlife.

In the afternoon we visit Tanjung Harapan rehabilitation centre, witness feeding time at 3pm and take the opportunity to hike further into the forest. Overnight on the boat.

(NOTE: 3-day cruise end after lunch. We arrive in Kumai Harbour, check out at 2pm.)

Day 4 Pondok Tangguy - Trekking

The boat cruises upstream early in the morning for a full-day trek from Pondok Tangguy, accompanied by the ranger. On the way, keep an eye out for wildlife in this area of secondary forest. We take a packed lunch to have in the forest. Return to the boat for dinner and overnight in a quiet location on the river.

(NOTE: 4-day cruise finish after lunch. The boat slowly cruises along the Sekonyer River. This is the last opportunity for wildlife spotting along the mangrove riversides. After lunch, we arrive in Kumai Harbour. Check out at 2pm.)

Day 5 Cruise - Kumai - Pangkalan Bun Airport

Enjoy your breakfast on board. The boat cruises slowly along the Sekonyer River, giving you more opportunities to spot wildlife as we enjoy the final lunch on board. After lunch, we arrive in Kumai Harbour. Check out at 2pm.
