THE ESSENTIAL AZORES LUXURY CRUISE

In the heart of the Atlantic, discover the pristine beauty of the Azores, a volcanic archipelago where nature and culture intertwine. Between emerald landscapes and picturesque villages, each port of call will reveal its own unique character, where the blowing of the whales pierces the horizon and where nature, perfect for hiking, sets the pace. Faial, or "the blue island", is adorned with dazzling blue hydrangeas, while São Jorge unveils its steep cliffs and its discreet fajãs. Pico, dominated by its volcano, Portugal's highest summit, tells the history of humanity through its stone vineyards (UNESCO World Heritage Site); Terceira reveals, between its fortifications and colourful little streets, a heritage forged by centuries of maritime history. Discreet Graciosa is the northernmost Azorean island and designated a Biosphere Reserve by UNESCO; its appeal lies in its calm, its windmills with red domes and its striking volcanic caves.

ITINERARY

Day 1 - Ponta Delgada, Azores

The coastal city of Ponta Delgada stands on the southern coastline of São Miguel Island, in the Portuguese archipelago of the Azores. The historic district features a beautiful square framed by the three Baroque arches of the City Gates. A few steps from the shore you will find the Gothic church of São Sebastião and the Renaissance fortress, Fortaleza de São Brasão.

On the southern coast of the island of Sao Jorge lies the port of Velas. You will be amazed by its cliffs that plunge straight into the sea and the numerous fajas that dot the shoreline. These curious geological formations result from lava flows reaching the sea, landslides caused by earthquakes, or erosion. Sheltered from the winds, the fajas, flat stretches of land along the shoreline at the foot of towering cliffs, benefit from fertile soil and a favourable microclimate. Their natural pools of clear water invite you to swim in an exceptional natural setting.

Day 3 - Horta, Azores

Horta, the main town on Faial Island in the Azores, has retained a genuine authenticity and a picturesque charm. As the archipelago's main marina, it offers the chance to admire the many frescoes painted by sailors from around the world who have stopped on the island. Be sure to visit the town's museums, including the Scrimshaw Museum, showcasing the local art of carving whale teeth, or marvel at the captivating sight of whales, as Horta is one of the best places to watch these giants of the sea.

Day 4 - Madalena

Perched on the west coast of Pico Island, Madalena captivates visitors with its authenticity and tranquil atmosphere. Set amid enchanting volcanic landscapes, with white houses topped by red roofs, narrow streets, and a bustling harbour, the town opens onto the ocean, with the majestic silhouette of Pico volcano as its backdrop. Here, time seems to slow down, offering the opportunity to enjoy coastal walks, moments of relaxation in one of the many natural pools, wine tastings from UNESCO-listed volcanic vineyards, and friendly encounters.

Day 4 - Lajes do Pico, Azores

Nestled on the south coast of the island of Pico in the Azores archipelago, the charming town of Lajes do Pico is well worth a visit. Its colourful houses and stunning landscapes, steeped in the rich history of the whaling period that made the town famous, are sure to captivate you. Overlooking the town is the highest peak in Portugal, a majestic volcanic mountain rising to an altitude of 2,531 metres (8,300 ft). The unique landscapes of unspoilt nature, from volcanic cliffs to wild coastline, are sure to captivate you.

Day 5 - Praia da Graciosa, Azores

On Graciosa, admire the island's captivating landscapes, from vineyards surrounded by black basalt walls to rugged shorelines and crystal-clear waters. Its designation as a UNESCO World Biosphere Reserve has helped protect the northernmost island of the Azores archipelago from mass tourism. Take a stroll through its narrow streets, showcasing architectural influences from the Algarve and Alentejo, and admire the diverse landscapes, from verdant hills to spectacular volcanic formations.

Day 6 - Praia da Vitória, Azores

Nestled on the island of Terceira, Praia da Vitoria charms visitors with its unique atmosphere. Its narrow streets lined with white churches and colourful houses offer a glimpse into the gentle way of life typical of the Azores. The surrounding hills provide striking vistas of the bay and ocean, revealing the raw beauty of the landscapes. With its hikes, ocean vistas and warm encounters, Praia da Vitoria carries visitors into a world of authenticity and calm.
