

THE GREAT WHITE CONTINENT

In 1580, Spanish explorer Juan de Garay planted the seeds of what would become Buenos Aires. Today, it flourishes as the captivating capital of Argentina and a cosmopolitan metropolis that elegantly straddles two worlds. After taking some time to soak up the atmosphere we will fly too Ushguaia and board our ship for the crossing to Antarctica. As we near the Great White Continent we will start to see icebergs and seabirds, before we get a glimpse of the continent itself. Once we arrive in Antarctica we have no fixed itinerary. Depending on weather, ice conditions and reported wildlife distribution during your voyage, your Expedition Leader will craft a bespoke adventure, guided by tides and instinct for you to discover.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Arrive Buenos Aires

Often hailed as the "Paris of South America," Buenos Aires enchants with its blend of European elegance and Latin American vibrancy. As a sister city to global hubs like Moscow and Miami, Buenos Aires wears its rich cultural heritage on its sleeve. Its architectural diversity is a testament to a past deeply rooted in both the Old and New Worlds, offering a visual narrative that spans centuries and continents.

Day 2. Ushuaia embarkation

Transfer to Buenos Aires Airport and join the charter flight to Ushuaia, where you will be met by a transfer to take you to the ship.

Days 3-4 At sea

Time to enjoy some of the facilities of the ship, listen to some of the on board experts or just relax and soak up the atmosphere.

Days 5-9 Antarctica

These iare no ordinary days-- There is no fixed itinerary, the day unfolds like a secret whispered by nature herself. Depending on weather, ice conditions and reported wildlife distribution during your voyage, your Expedition Leader will craft a bespoke adventure, guided by tides and instinct for you to discover.

Expedition activities may include Zodiac cruises, nature walks, or cultural experiences. Experiences in polar regions may encounter icy or cold conditions. Guests requiring a wheelchair will not have access to a Zodiac.

Days 10-11. At sea

Time to reflect on our time on the White Continent and make maximum use of all the facilities on the ship.

Day 12. Disembark and fly to Buenos Alres

Disembark in Ushuaia, transfer to the airport and fly to Buenos Aires.
