

THE KERALA BACKWATERS - INDIA RIVER CRUISE

Pandaw is the only river cruise operator offering multi night expeditions through the Kerala Backwaters, with a purpose-built fleet designed for these narrow inland waterways, featuring classic brass and teak styling and full wrap-around promenade decks. The ship operates a weekly seven-day circular itinerary from Kochi, navigating deep into the backwaters' 900 kilometres of interconnected rivers and lakes. Along the way, guests visit historic churches, Hindu temples, artisan communities, traditional villages, and stretches of the Malabar Coast, combining cultural discovery with scenic cruising through palm-lined canals and lagoons. Cochin International Airport offers strong connectivity, with Middle East hub links to Europe, direct flights to many Southeast Asian cities, and domestic routes across India, making access straightforward for international and regional travellers. Please note: specific stops may vary based on river conditions and local guidance.

ITINERARY

Day 1 - Arrival & Kochi Exploration

10:30 AM onwards: Welcome and gather at the designated meeting point. Your luggage will be safely collected and tagged with your cabin number here.

12:00 PM - 01:00 PM: Enjoy a delicious lunch at the Old Harbor hotel restaurant.

01:30 PM - 05:00 PM: Proceed directly to our afternoon excursion to explore the beautiful Fort Kochi, followed by a visit to the Kerala Folklore Museum en route to the ship.

05:00 PM: Arrive at the ship and officially welcome onboard!

06:00 PM - 07:00 PM: Relax and join us for Cocktail Hour on the Upper deck, featuring the Cocktail of the Day and canapes.

Day 2 - Vaikom - Kumarakom

We cast off early toward the Vaikom Terminal. Our morning excursion takes us to the Vaikom Mahadeva Temple, a site of immense archaeological and historical importance known as the "Kashi of the South." Dedicated to Lord Shiva, this temple is a classic example of traditional Kerala architecture and is believed in legend to have been built by Parasurama, the sixth avatar of Vishnu. We then sail toward Kumarakom, a cluster of scenic islands located on the backdrop of Vembanad Lake. In the late afternoon, we invite you to witness a performance of Kathakali, a classical Indian dance-drama noted for its elaborate make-up, costumes, and detailed gestures that narrate stories from Indian epics.

Day 3 - Nattakam

We sail this morning to Nattakam, a serene village known for its lush greenery. We board a traditional country boat (Shikara) for a relaxed sail to the Munroe Lighthouse. Built in 1885, this historic structure guides ships with its striking beacon and offers panoramic views of the Kerala coastline and the region's rich maritime history. In the afternoon, we explore Kumarakom, a renowned bird sanctuary and village on Vembanad Lake. Famous for its mangrove forests and paddy fields, this excursion offers an intimate look at village life in the backwaters.

Day 4 - Kainakary - Kavalam

We cast off toward Kainakary, a picturesque village within the Kuttanad region, often called the "Rice Bowl of Kerala." Our morning visit is to the ancestral home of St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara, a 19th-century saint and social reformer who played a pivotal role in the education and social upliftment of the state. Following lunch, we embark on a village walk through Kavalam. The tour includes a visit to St. Mary's Jacobite Syrian Church, an architectural testament to the ancient Christian traditions that have flourished in Kerala since the 1st century AD. The day concludes with a performance of Mohiniattam, the "Dance of the Enchantress," a classical dance form characterised by graceful, swaying movements traditionally performed by women.

Day 5 - Alappuzha - Thottapally

We sail toward Alleppey (Alappuzha), colloquially known as the "Venice of the East" due to its vast network of canals. Our morning excursion visits the Revi Karunakaran Memorial Museum. Established by Betty Karan in honour of her husband, a leading coir industrialist, this private museum houses a magnificent collection of Swarovski crystals, ivory, Tanjore paintings, and porcelain. In the afternoon, we take a scenic drive to Thottapally Beach. Here, guests will witness a thrilling demonstration of Kalaripayattu, considered the oldest surviving martial art in the world. We then visit a local fishing community temple to observe evening rituals and take a walk through the unique pine forest that borders the beach.

Day 6 - Alleppey Backwaters

We set sail to explore the scenic Alleppey Backwaters. Our morning excursion visits the Mannarasala Sree Nagaraja Temple, an ancient centre of serpent worship nestled in a forest glade. This temple is unique in Hindu culture for having a woman as its chief priestess, a tradition upheld for centuries. In the afternoon, we disembark for a walk through Kuppapuram Village. This offers a genuine opportunity to interact with locals and observe the daily rhythm of life in the Kuttanad region, where farming and fishing are the primary livelihoods.

Day 7 - Pallippuram

We cast off toward Pallippuram, a serene area situated on the shores of Vembanad Lake. We visit the historic St. Mary's Forane Church in Pallippuram. Founded in AD 427, this is one of the most significant Marian shrines in the state, renowned for its ancient origins and beautiful Portuguese-style architectural influences. The afternoon is dedicated to relaxation as we enjoy a peaceful sailing experience through the backwaters, complemented by a soothing massage service available onboard. In the evening, join us for a Farewell Dinner.

Day 8 - Return - Kochi for Disembarkation

After a final breakfast on board, we disembark at the Arookutty Boat Jetty.
