Directional winds and waves cause the shape of the beach to often change. Continue to the island of Vis, once a strategic naval Yugoslav base and closed to the public for years. Due to this isolation, Vis retains a special charm - "the Mediterranean as it once was," making it interesting to visit. Situated on the northern side of the island, Vis has developed near the remains of ancient Issa, the first urban centre in Croatia. Sample local wines. If interested, visit the remains of the Roman Thermal Place, the City Museum or simply take a walk enjoying the views of the beautiful Village Rusticae situated along the waterfront. Wine tasting in a local winery. Overnight in the port of Vis.

Hvar is the longest and sunniest island in the Adriatic, known for lush lavender fields and breathtaking beauty. Arrive in the afternoon for a guided tour of the town's historical landmarks - the Renaissance cathedral with its original tower, and the oldest community theatre in Europe, founded in 1612.
